

The collected Scottish Social Security Legislation

TARTAN BOOK: SOCIAL SECURITY

Welfare Rights and Money Advice

GHSCP (2025) (March)

Introduction

The purpose of this document is to provide links to all the legislation concerned with Scottish Social Security. It contains hyperlinks to all primary and secondary legislation developed by the Scottish government that provides for Social Security including all the benefits administered by the Scottish Social Security agency. It also includes hyperlinks to Upper tribunal of Scotland decisions related to the social security chamber.

Over the life of the tartan book some non-legislation links have been added including interpretive guidance to some aspect of Social Security in Scotland, in that vein The Tartan Book now includes links to decisions of the Upper Tribunal for Scotland. The relationship between Scottish benefits and UK benefits also has to be considered so the tartan book now includes information about aspects of UK benefits that have a direct or indirect impact in Scotland.

This volume now runs to almost 60 pages of links to Scottish Social Security legislation, but as you know, hard copies of the legislation would run to considerably more.

Since the first creation of the Tartan book in November 2021 there have been, almost monthly updates, this is our third anniversary.

As to why it is called the Tartan Book, it is a reminder of the days when the DWP collated its Legislation in the Yellow, later the Blue volumes.

All the Legislation links unless otherwise stated are to Legislation UK.

The next Tartan book will be issued in April 2025

The Council Tax (Exempt Dwellings) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2025

From the policy note

The purpose of this order is to amend the Council Tax (Exempt Dwellings) (Scotland) Order 1997 ("the 1997 Order"), which lists those classes of dwellings which are exempt from Council Tax in Scotland. This Order substitutes a new paragraph 26 into schedule 1 of the 1997 Order. This updates the exemption relating to dwellings made available as the sole or main residence of a person with permission to enter or stay in the United Kingdom under the Homes for Ukraine Sponsorship Scheme. It also exempts certain dwellings used as the sole or main residence of a person with permission to stay in the United Kingdom under the Ukraine Permission Extension Scheme (UPE), or a person who has applied for permission to stay under UPE and is awaiting the outcome of the application. The amendment ensures that no council tax is payable in respect of a dwelling used as the sole or main residence of:

- one or more persons who has permission to enter or stay in the United Kingdom (UK) under the Homes for Ukraine Sponsorship Scheme, or UPE, (or who has applied for permission under UPE and is awaiting the outcome of their application), where the accommodation is made available by a person approved by a local authority to provide accommodation as a host, other than a host who is a close relative of the person, or
- one or more persons falling within the description above plus one or more persons falling within paragraph 10(a) of schedule 1 of the 1997 Order.

The Council Tax Reduction and Council Tax (Discounts) (Miscellaneous Amendment) (Scotland) Regulations 2025

From the policy note

The purpose of this instrument is to ensure that:

- entitlement to a Single Person Discount in relation to Council Tax liability, is not affected by there being a Ukrainian national/s or a member of their immediate family who have been granted permission to stay in the United Kingdom (UK) under the Ukraine Permission Extension (UPE) Scheme (or who have applied for permission under the scheme and are awaiting the outcome of their application) living in the household of a person who is approved by a local authority to provide accommodation as a host, except where the host is a close relative of the person being accommodated.
- Council Tax Reduction (CTR) support is not reduced on account of a Ukrainian national or their immediate family member who have permission to stay in the UK under the UPE Scheme (or who have applied for permission under the UPE Scheme and are awaiting the outcome of their application) and are being provided with accommodation by an approved host, being treated as a non-dependant of a CTR applicant, again where the host is not a close relative of the person being accommodated.

The instrument also updates the provision for disregard and treatment as not being a non-dependant for Ukrainian nationals and their immediate family members in the UK under the Homes for Ukraine Sponsorship scheme, so that it applies where accommodation is provided by an approved host.

The National Assistance (Assessment of Resources) Amendment (Scotland) Regulations 2025

From policy note

To increase the value of savings credit disregard from £8.15 to £8.50 for a single person and from £12.10 to £12.60 for a couple in line with average earnings which is currently forecast at 4.1%. To increase the lower capital limit from £21,500 to £22,000 and the upper capital limit from £35,000 to £35,500 in line with CPI forecast at 1.7%. To disregard the following payments to individuals living in residential care: Grenfell Tower fire payments; payments made under an infected blood payment scheme, and, in certain circumstances, payments made by or out of the estates of certain recipients of those schemes; ; payments under the LGBT Financial Recognition Scheme; payments made as a result of the failings of the Horizon System during the period it was used by the Post Office; and payments under the Vaccine Damage Payments Act 1979, including payments to the partners of recipients. This will ensure that these payments are not taken into consideration by local authorities when they carry out a financial assessment for charges for those living in residential care.

The National Assistance (Sums for Personal Requirements) (Scotland) Regulations 2025

From the policy note

To increase the value of personal expenses allowance in line with average earnings, an increase of 4.1%.

The Cost of Living (Tenant Protection) (Saving Provision) (Scotland) Regulations 2025

From the policy note

The Cost of Living (Tenant Protection) (Saving Provision) (Scotland) Regulations 2025 (the “2025 Regulations”) contain saving provisions to support transition out of the temporary modifications to rent adjudication provided for by The Rent Adjudication (Temporary Modification) (Scotland) Regulations 2024 (the “2024 regulations”) which are due to expire at the end of 31 March 2025. Saving provisions mean that the 2024 Regulations modification will continue to have effect as they did immediately before their expiry in relation to referrals and appeals to Rent Service Scotland and the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (Housing and Property Chamber) for an adjudication of a rent increase for those applications made before 1 April 2025.

Case law update

J A against Social Security Scotland

Decision

The Upper Tribunal allows the appeal, quashes the decision of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland (“FTS”) dated 4 October 2025 and remits the case to a differently constituted First-tier Tribunal. Reasons

1. I granted the appellant permission to appeal on the following point of law: “Whether an omission by Social Security Scotland to inform the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland of the identity of a claimant’s representative, when that information was known to Social Security Scotland, in the circumstances of this case, was a failure to comply with the duty referred to in rule 2(4) of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland Social Security Chamber Rules of Procedure 2018 (“the FTS Procedure Rules”); and in the event that it was such a failure, what consequence should follow.”

LK against Social Security Scotland

Decision

In terms of regulations 11(1)(c)(i) and 11(5)(b) of the Disability Assistance for Children and Young People (Scotland) Regulations, 2021, the appellant is entitled to receive the care component of Child Disability Payment in respect of the child, E, at the middle rate for the period 8 July 2022 to 8 April 2025.

Reasons 1. This is a decision on disposal of the appeal which is supplementary to my decision on the merits of the appeal dated 24 January 2025. It should be read together with that previous decision.

2. Ultimately, neither party insisted upon an oral hearing on the question of whether the claim should be remitted to a new tribunal or determined by me on the basis of the findings in fact made by the FTS.

3. I have concluded that, on the basis of the findings in fact made by the FTS, only one conclusion is possible. A remit to the FTS is not necessary, and it is appropriate for the claim should to be determined by me.

JG against Social Security Scotland

The Tribunal ORDERS that: the appeal is GRANTED, the decision of the First-Tier Tribunal for Scotland in this matter dated 16 April 2024 is quashed and the case is remitted to the First-Tier Tribunal to be reconsidered by a differently constituted Tribunal.

Case Law

How to access Scottish Upper Tribunal case law.

If you visit the Scottish courts and tribunals website you will see on the secondary ribbon across the page a drop down box labelled Judgments. If you click on that box it will reveal a link that allows you Search judgments. Selecting this option will take you to a scrollable page which will allow you to search for all uploaded judgements.

To find the decision you need scroll down and you will find a series of filters, you can filter by court or tribunal or date, or key word. If you select Upper Tribunal- Social Security Chamber you will be presented by the full list of decisions or if you don't want to be bothered by all of that you can hopefully use this.
